

Invitation of Training Partners and Guest Speakers

The Hong Kong Productivity Council (HKPC) is a non-profit making organization established by statute with a mandate to promote productivity excellence. For over 40 years, HKPC has been offering diversified industry training activities designed to upgrade and update the knowledge and skills of people in different business sectors. In order to enhance HKPC's training support to various business sectors, the Productivity Training Institute (PTI) has been established to better coordinate, plan, develop and manage all its public training activities.

To meet the changing needs of industry amid its transformation and diversification, the PTI welcomes the participation of relevant experts as training partners and guest speakers for its variety of training courses for industry in the following key areas (The number of new training partners and guest speakers invited is unlimited):

Manufacturing Technology

Environmental Technology Management

Information Technology/Management

Business Management/System

The training courses will be conducted in Hong Kong and/or Pearl River Delta.

Interested parties are invited to send proposals and resumes to the PTI by email or by post:
